NOTICES

Reminder

There are forms on the table at the back of Church for nominations of Churchwardens and PCC members. Please give completed forms to Lesley Jaram.

World Day of Prayer

It is our turn to host the service this year but, as this building will not be available because of the electrical works, the service will be held in the United Reformed Church on Friday, 1st March, at 2 pm. We will still be organising and leading the service and providing refreshments (so there will shortly be a request for cakes and help). Can you sing in tune? If so, do please come and join the special choir. The music is not hard. There will be a practice on Friday, 22nd February, at 2pm at the URC.

Preparation of new Electoral Roll

Under the Church Representation Rules a new Electoral Roll will have to be prepared this year. Everyone must complete a form if they wish to be included on this new Roll (even if your name is on the existing Roll). Forms will be available in the back of church, together with a box in which the completed forms can be left. The deadline for inclusion on this new Electoral Roll is Sunday, 24 March 2019 and all completed forms must be returned by this date. Any queries please contact Gillian Pritchett, Electoral Roll Officer.

Pancake Coffee Morning

Join us in the Parish Hall for our annual Pancake coffee morning on Shrove Tuesday, 5th March. Serving homemade pancakes with various toppings, plus tea & coffee. This is a free event although donations will be greatly received. Everyone welcome.

Help needed, please

The Sanctuary Guild is urgently in need of people to help regularly with cleaning the Sanctuary as well as the brass and silver which are used on Sundays. There are four groups which means that the duty comes round every two months. Each group meets on two consecutive Friday mornings at 9 o'clock when the tasks take approximately one hour. It is also a time of fellowship. If you are interested in being involved please speak to me after Church on Sunday or contact me by phone 01751 475295. Thank you. Valerie Batchelor

100 Club

If you would like to become a member please have a word with David Billett or Ali Holmes.

It would be helpful, please, if you could stack the pew cushions in front of the North Transept after the service whilst work is going on in the nave. Thank you.

Also, in preparation for the installation of cabling and a control panel, the North Transept is to be partially emptied and re-aligned. Volunteers are required to help with this task, please, meeting at the Church on Saturday 16 February at 10:00am.

Please indicate your willingness to help by putting you details on the list at the back of the Church.

*Please send any notices for next week's pew sheet by Wednesday to Valerie Batchelor (475295, email:

READINGS AND PROPERS

Collect

O God,
you know us to be set
in the midst of so many and great dangers,
that by reason of the frailty of our nature
we cannot always stand upright:
grant to us such strength and protection
as may support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 6. 1 - 8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.' The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Psalm 138

Response: Great is the glory, the glory of the Lord

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods will I sing praise to you. I will bow down towards your holy temple and praise your name, because of your love and faithfulness; for you have glorified your name and your word above all things. In the day that I called to you, you answered me; you put new strength in my soul. R

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord, for they have heard the words of your mouth. They shall sing of the ways of the Lord, that great is the glory of the Lord. Though the Lord be high, he watches over the lowly; as for the proud, he regards them from afar. R

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will preserve me; you will stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand will save me. The Lord shall make good his purpose for me; your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever; forsake not the work of your hands. R

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15. 1-11

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Come after me and I will make you fishers of men.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 5. 1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Post Communion Prayer

Go before us, Lord, in all we do with your most gracious favour, and guide us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally by your mercy receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
